AI Workforce OS for plumbers, HVAC, electricians, locksmiths, garage-door, pest control, cleaning, lawn care. Never miss a call. Never miss a same-day.

1. One-page outline

Headline: AI Workforce OS for Home Services

Sub: Hire AI employees that answer every call, dispatch same-day, and ask every customer for a review — 24/7, no overflow.

The 3 wins:

- 0 missed calls — voice + SMS + web all routed through one workforce
- Same-day dispatch with vendor SLA + crew availability built in
- 40% more reviews / month (and routed: 5-star to Google, complaint to you)

Star employee: AI Intake Receptionist — picks up every call, qualifies, books the appointment, or escalates. Voice-first, SMS fallback. Memory-backed by the service area + price list + tech availability.

The roster (4 AI employees):

Role	What it does	Memory source
Intake Receptionist	Voice + SMS triage	Service area + price list + tech availability
Dispatcher	Same-day routing	Crew schedule + vendor SLA
Quote Recovery	Reactivate stalled quotes	Quote pipeline + customer history
Review Collector	Post-service nudge + route	Service ticket + reviews ledger

The CTA:

1. Live demo: mission.baselineautomations.com/?demo=home-services
2. $1, 14-day pilot
3. Convert at $299/mo

2. Sales sheet

A missed call is a missed job. A missed job is $300–$2,000 of revenue. Most home-service shops lose 15–40% of inbound calls to voicemail, after-hours, or "we're busy right now."

Baseline solves it with four AI employees:

- AI Intake Receptionist answers every call. Qualifies. Books. Hands off to a human if needed. Voice-first, SMS fallback, 24/7.
- AI Dispatcher routes same-day. Knows your crew availability, your service area, your SLA windows. Surfaces the emergency before you ask.
- AI Quote Recovery reactivates the quotes that went cold. 4-touch cadence, opt-out-clean, hands off to a closer when warm.
- AI Review Collector asks every customer after the job. Routes 5-star to Google. Routes the 1-star straight to you, with the job context attached.

Mission Control supervises. Every quote, every reschedule, every escalation waits for the operator's approval. Memory backed.

Trial: $1 / 14 days. Tier: $299/mo.

3. Discovery script

1. How many inbound calls do you receive per week? (Sizing)
 2. What % go to voicemail? Honest number. (15–40% is industry norm)
 3. After-hours coverage — voicemail, answering service, or nothing?
 4. What's your average job ticket value?
 5. How many same-day requests do you get per week, and what % do you fulfill?
 6. How are you collecting reviews today? (None / manual / paid service)
 7. What software runs your dispatch? (ServiceTitan / Jobber / Housecall Pro / none)
 8. Last week, did you miss a call you wish you hadn't? How much was the job worth?
 9. If you had a 24/7 receptionist that booked appointments and never asked for a raise, would you keep them?
 10. $1 pilot for 14 days — open to it?

4. Objection handling

Objection	Response	Proof
"Customers want a real person."	"AI Intake Receptionist sounds like a person. It books appointments, qualifies, and hands off to your team when it should. Same satisfaction scores in the pilot cohort. Listen to a recording."	Play a sample voice flow
"After-hours is a small slice."	"Run the math: 15% of your weekly calls × $X average ticket × 50 weeks. Most shops are leaving $40–120k on the table."	Open ROI calculator
"ServiceTitan does dispatch."	"Keep ServiceTitan. Mission Control sits on top. AI Dispatcher writes the dispatch in ServiceTitan, like your CSR does, but at 3am and on Sundays."	Demo the integration
"Reviews — I tried Birdeye / Podium."	"Those send the same nudge to every customer. AI Review Collector reads the job context and routes. 5-star to Google, 1-star to you, 3-star to a recovery flow."	Show review routing
"Quotes — most are dead."	"Most are dead because no one followed up. 4-touch cadence over 10 days recovers 12–18%. Math out at your average ticket."	Show the cadence
"Too many bots already."	"This isn't a bot — it's a workforce. Four employees, one dashboard, your approval gates everywhere. Watch this."	Demo Mission Control
